Athens, 3 May 2023

Dear IPA friends worldwide,

We've opened up another year and hopefully the strange period of Covid is behind us. We together look for better days in the future!

IPA, as the largest police organisation in the world, like always, stands together united worldwide in the name of FRIENDSHIP!

The children of our members will always be our most cherished values, so like previous years, we dedicate this activity to them, the future of the IPA.

The SCC, announces the 3rd world-wide IPA Children's Painting Competition 2023, to give our children the joy of participation and creative work in the spirit of the police.

I invite you to urge your children and grandchildren to participate!

Yours in Friendship!
